THE DAILY EPITAPH IS

the only Daily Newspaper published in Cochise county that takes a regular telegraphic press report and does not use "boiler plate."

It has been no small source of wonder why Hon. Charles R. Drake did not take his office, especially when it was known that his bond had been filed and accepted. Again the DAILY EPITAPH is the paper to give the first news about an important investigation now going on in Tucson. A short item was noticed in one of the Tucson papers two or three days ago noting the presence in that city of an inspector of United States land offices. The inference was that he had just arrived, when the fact is that he has been there for about a month. The government inspector has been overhauling the records of the office of Receiver of Public Moneys, which position is at present held by Fred W. Smith. The examination, as far as it has gone, shows matters up in very bad shape for Mr. Smith, and the chances are that his bondsmen will be called upon to make good a considerable deficiency. Mr. Smith is not in Tucson at present, which is significant. This is why Mr. Drake has not yet assumed control of the office. He naturally wishes to have the affairs of the office straightened out before taking charge.

We have never seen, since the news of his appointment, anything in favor of Judge Sloan in the Citizen. Even on the publication of the interviews published about the recent secret meeting of some lawyers held for the purpose of condemning Judge Sloan, the Citizen had not a word to say for or against the attempt of these disgruntled and disappointed candidates and politicians to smirch the character of Judge Sloan. This was somewhat of a mystery, as Judge Sloan is surely entitled to the support of his party papers, especially of the Citizen, which arrogates to itself the position of the leading paper of the Republican party in Arizona. But the reason of this silence has finally leaked out. It seems that the appointment of Brewster Cameron as clerk of the court was extremely distasteful to Governor Wolfley and Surveyor General Johnson, and as Wolfley and his henchmen, assisted by the Citizen, are endeavoring to run the Republican party of the Territory, especially the Tucson end, the silence is explained. If a Republican don't go down on his knees to the combine he must suffer the consequences.

ALTHOUGH it would not be right, yet if Wolfley is kept in his present position it will be rather an uphill job for the Republicans to elect a Delegate next year, and the effect will even be felt in county elections. The Republicans throughout the Territory, who have the welfare of the Republican party at heart, should unite in an effort to have this political marplot removed at the earliest possible moment.

A GENTLEMAN recently from Tucson brings the information that a very bitter feeling exists between the anti-Wolfley and Wolfley wings of the Republican party in Tucson, with the adherents of Wolfley greatly in the minority and growing beautifully less.

FROM an item in Wolfley's Tucson organ it is learned that he has not yet gone to Washington. According to programme, he should have been in Washington by this time, instructing the President as to his duties and spitting on his hands preparatory to getting a tail hold on Congress.

I will meet the colored fighter at their club room if a purse of $20,000 is put up, and that is my final answer. They were now however ready to lay before the president their credentials that they might be acted upon in due course. This announcement was received with loud applause. Delegate Henderson of the United States immediately offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Congress welcome the United States of Brazil into the sisterhood of American republics.

Some debate as to the propriety of the Congress in taking such action followed the resolution, which was finally tabled.

In a recent article in the Youth's Companion, on "How to cure a cold," the writer advises a hot lemonade to be taken at bed time. It is a dangerous treatment, especially during the severe cold weather of the winter months, as it opens the pores of the skin and leaves the system in such condition that another and much more severe cold is almost certain to be contracted. Many years constant use and the experience of thousands of persons of all ages, has fully demonstrated that there is nothing better for a severe cold than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts in perfect harmony with nature, relieves the lungs, liquefies the tough, tenacious mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and restores the system to a strong and healthy condition.
